Payment relief for natural persons¹

Natural persons (private individuals, sole proprietors, and individuals liable to pay VAT) who are unable to meet their payment obligations on time for any justified economic or personal reason may request a payment relief from the National Tax and Customs Administration (NTCA).

The payment relief may be:

- deferral of payment,
- authorizing instalment payment (the former two together: payment facilitation),
- tax reduction,
- or, in some particularly justified cases, waiver of tax.

I. Payment facilitation

Payment facilitation – deferred payment or instalment payment – may be requested if the payment difficulty

- is not attributable to the applicant, or the applicant has acted as could be expected of him/her in the given situation to avoid the difficulty, and
- it is temporary in nature, so it is expected that the applicant will be able to pay tax at a later date²

No payment facilitation may be requested for any:

- personal income tax advances,
- income tax deducted,
- contributions deducted from the natural person by the payer, and
- tax collected³.

¹The rules of payment relief are set out in Article 198 and Articles 200-201 of Act CL of 2017 on the Rules of Taxation (hereinafter: Taxation Act).

² Article 198 (1) of the Taxation Act.

³ Articles 198 (3) (a)-(c) of the Taxation Act.

Special cases

Payment facilitation may be allowed even if the applicant has not made every effort to avoid payment difficulties, but only if the immediate or lump-sum payment of the tax would place a heavy burden on the applicant's family, income, property and social circumstances. The applicant must provide proof of this fact or its likelihood.⁴

In that case, payment facilitation may be granted also for deducted liabilities, if an increase in instalments payable under the applicant's credit, loan or financial leasing agreements with financial institutions or the termination of credit agreements would represent a disproportionately high burden. Payment facilitation for deducted liabilities may be granted under a debt settlement procedure⁵.

Surcharge payment

For the term of an authorized payment facilitation – from the date of the authorization decision – NTCA will require a surcharge at a rate equal to the Central Bank base rate quoted on the submission date of the application.

In exceptionally justified cases, payment facilitation may be granted free of any surcharge. If you want to request a surcharge-free payment facilitation, this must be indicated in Point 17 of the application.

II. Debt reduction and waiver

NTCA may, upon request, reduce or waive tax-, fine- or surcharge debts if their payment would seriously jeopardize the livelihood of the taxpayer and his/her relatives living in the same household. As a precondition to granting reduction, NTCA may require the payment of some part of the tax debt, in proportion to the taxpayer's ability to pay.⁶

No reduction or waiver may be requested for

- any tax or contribution debt to be deducted by the payer from the natural person, and
- any tax levied as a type of tax to be collected.

Equity

A serious threat to livelihood can be inferred, in particular, if the net per capita income of a taxpayer and his/her close relatives living in the same household does not exceed the current minimum subsistence level, and this income situation is reflected in their wealth and social circumstances.

Of course, this does not mean that equity may only be exercised in the case of such a low income, a reduction or waiver may also be requested for a higher amount of income if, comparing income and other property conditions with the size of the debt, the payment of the full amount of the debt would seriously jeopardize the livelihood.

⁵ Article 198 (5) of the Taxation Act.

⁶ Article 201 (1) of the Taxation Act.

III. Payment reductions applicable in emergency situations announced due to the coronavirus epidemic

Payment relief on account of the coronavirus epidemic may be requested if the payment difficulty is

- proven to be a consequence of the situation caused by the coronavirus epidemic and
- temporary in nature, so that a later recovery of the tax is probable.

Upon request, NTCA may also authorize that the debt be paid in instalments following deferral.

For the duration of the payment facilitation, the Tax Authority will require no surcharge.

Surcharge- and penalty debt

NTCA may reduce or waive the debt of surcharges and penalties out of exceptional equity, especially, if its payment would make the economic activity of the sole proprietor, legal entity or other organization impossible. As a precondition to granting reduction, NTCA may require the payment of all (or some part of) the tax debt⁷.

IV. The information provided

You are responsible for providing proof that the conditions for the relief exist. For the assessment of the application, the form must be completed fully and correctly, with amounts provided in HUF. If the data provided on the data sheet contradicts NTCA's records or reflects unrealistic public utility or other expenses different from usual, NTCA may request the submission of documents and copies of invoices suitable for the verification of such data.

If you fail to indicate in this form all the facts or circumstances necessary for assessing your application, or you fail to provide all the evidence available to you, then later, in a possible appeal or a procedure launched based on an appeal, you will not be able to provide them. You may not establish a new fact, or to refer to new evidence, of which you had been aware before NTCA's decision at first instance, but you had not presented it or had not referred to it⁸.

⁷ Article 201 (3) of the Taxation Act.

⁸ Article 124 (3) of the Tax Procedures Act.

Submission of the application

You may submit your application for payment relief by using the form attached and delivering it

- by post,
- in person at NTCA Customer Services, or
- electronically, using a form called FAM01, which can be downloaded from the NTCA website.

For any taxpayer who is not obliged to communicate electronically with NTCA and submits his/her application on paper,

- but declared to use electronic communication in the Register of Disposition (RNY), or
- has not made any declaration as to the means of communication in RNY, but has a secure delivery availability known to NTCA (KÜNY data repository),

NTCA will deliver documents electronically to his/her KÜNY data repository.

And if someone submits his/her application electronically, whether or not obliged to communicate electronically, NTCA will deliver the necessary documents

- primarily electronically to the taxpayer or to the taxpayer's representative submitting the application, unless the taxpayer is not required to communicate electronically and he/she has not consented to electronic communication in the RNY.

The application may be submitted by the taxpayer, the person liable to pay tax⁹, or their representatives¹⁰. If, on behalf of the taxpayer, a representative acts who has no permanent power of attorney, a power of attorney must be attached at the same time as the application is submitted. A sample power of attorney to be used by individuals and sole proprietors can be downloaded from the NTCA website – www.nav.gov.hu –, using the menu items „Downloads” → „Data sheets, certificates, samples of power of attorney” → „Samples of power of attorney”.
