

How to import goods from the EU into GB from January 2021

Decide how you will import your goods from the EU into GB.

The main options are:

- Importing goods through Deferred Declarations. For non-controlled (standard) goods this allows you to keep records of the goods you are importing and delay submitting a full customs declaration and paying customs duties for up to six months after import.
- Importing goods through standard import procedures for all goods.
- For some controlled goods, you may wish to consider using the Simplified Declaration procedure. You need to be authorised to use this process. You can also use this process for Standard Goods.
- If you are moving goods through multiple territories or want to complete your customs formalities away from the border, you may wish to consider using Transit.

Note: Additional processes may be required depending on what location of entry you are using.

Further guidance on importing is on GOV.UK. This covers the full range of options available.

For Standard import go to page 4

For Simplified Declaration procedure go to page 6

For Transit go to page 8

Deferred declarations (standard goods)

Get ready

Get an EORI number issued by the UK if you do not already have one (it starts with GB). It takes five to ten minutes to apply on GOV.UK.

Check if your goods need an import licence/certificate, for example if you are selling food or livestock and if so, apply for what you need.

Check VAT guidance to understand your VAT responsibilities, and why to retain evidence of import.

Continue to page 2

Deferred declarations (standard goods)

You've decided to use Deferred Declarations, so you will have up to six months after import to submit your Supplementary Declaration. Customs processes are complicated, so most businesses use customs intermediaries to complete customs processes for them.

Things to consider:

- Do you have the staff who could take on this new work?
- Do you have the skills to do this yourself?

Will you, as most businesses do, be using a customs intermediary to complete customs processes for you?

Yes, I want to use a customs intermediary.

No, I don't want to use a customs intermediary.

Find a customs intermediary. They will be required to be authorised for Simplified Declaration procedure before they submit supplementary declarations.

Check the UK Global Tariff for your goods to understand what duties must be paid.

You must still apply and be authorised for a duty deferment account to pay any duties owed on goods by monthly direct debit, even if your goods do not attract customs or excise duty. You must have set this up before you complete your supplementary declaration up to six months later. New rules are being introduced which will allow most traders to use duty deferment without needing a customs comprehensive guarantee. Even if you choose to use a customs intermediary, they may ask you to get your own Duty Deferment Account.

You will need to apply and be authorised for simplified declarations for imports to submit supplementary declarations up to six months after import.

To get ready to make supplementary declarations up to six months after import, you will need specialist software and to get training.

You will also need to apply for a CHIEF badge(s) – which is needed to complete and submit your supplementary declarations up to six months after import.

Prepare to move your goods

Make sure you have all the necessary information to complete a declaration in your own records including: your EORI number (it starts with GB).

Continue to page 3

Continue to page 3

Deferred declarations (standard goods)

Record your import in your own records.

Provide all necessary information your customs intermediary asks for at this stage to enable them to complete supplementary declarations when they are required.

Ensure that the declarant (EU Exporter) of your goods has done everything that they need to do to make sure they successfully pass through EU customs:

- Have an EU EORI number from the relevant EU authority
- Got any relevant Export/specialist goods licences/certificates.
- Completed export declaration on their country's declaration system.

Once your goods have been imported you must update your records with actual date and time the goods arrive as soon as possible.

If you need to, you can defer the Supplementary declaration for up to six months.

Provide any additional information your customs intermediary asks for so that they can complete a Supplementary declaration.

You must complete a Supplementary declaration using the relevant information kept in your own records.

You or your intermediary's duty deferment account will be debited after you or your intermediary have submitted your supplementary declaration.

If you are VAT registered you must use postponed VAT accounting to account for your import VAT to be paid quarterly and not delayed up to six months.

If you are not VAT registered you will pay your import VAT with your customs duties.

Further guidance on paying duties is on GOV.UK.

If you are an Intrastat business make sure you or your intermediary continues to submit your Intrastat returns.

For Standard import
continue to page 4

Standard import (full customs declaration)

Get ready

Get an EORI number issued by the UK if you do not already have one (it starts with GB). It takes five to ten minutes to apply on GOV.UK.

Check if your goods need an import licence/certificate, for example if you are selling food or livestock and if so, apply for what you need.

For most controlled goods, including chemicals, food, excise goods or animals, there will be additional documents/certificates and processes that you will need to follow.

Check VAT guidance to understand your VAT responsibilities, and why to retain evidence of import.

You've decided to use Standard Import Procedures. Customs processes are complicated, so most businesses use customs intermediaries to complete customs processes for them.

Things to consider:

- Do you have the staff who could take on this new work?
- Do you have the skills to do this yourself?

Will you, as most businesses do, be using a customs intermediary to complete customs processes for you?

Yes, I want to use a customs intermediary.

No, I don't want to use a customs intermediary.

Find a customs intermediary.

You will need to make declarations. To do this you will need specialist software and to get training to complete the declarations.

You will also need to apply for a CHIEF badge(s) – which is needed to complete and submit your declarations.

Check the UK Global Tariff for your goods. If your goods attract customs or excise duty you should apply for a duty deferment account to pay your duties owed on goods by monthly direct debit. To benefit from this payment method you must have set this up before you import your goods.

Further guidance on paying duties is on GOV.UK.

Prepare to move your goods

Provide all necessary information your customs intermediary asks for at this stage to enable them to complete supplementary declarations when they are required.

Complete a full customs declaration. You will need information including:

- Your commodity code
- Your customs procedure code

This will give you a unique reference number.

Continue to page 5

Continue to page 5

Standard import (full customs declaration)

Ensure that the declarant (EU Exporter) of your goods has done everything that they need to do to make sure they successfully pass through EU customs:

- Have an EU EORI number from the relevant EU authority
- Got any relevant Export/specialist goods licences/certificates. They will need these to get your goods across the EU border
- Completed export declaration on their country's declaration system.

You will need to pay the following:

- Customs duty – should be paid once the goods arrive in GB. You can pay HMRC directly or use a duty deferment account which means you can delay payment.
- Import VAT –
 - If you are VAT registered you should use postponed VAT accounting to account for your import VAT.
 - If you are not VAT registered you will pay your import VAT with your customs or excise duties.
- Excise duty – must be paid unless the goods are placed into excise duty suspension

Further guidance on paying duties is on GOV.UK.

If you are an Intrastat business make sure you or your intermediary continues to submit your Intrastat returns.

For Simplified Declaration procedure continue to page 6

Simplified Declaration procedure – some controlled (and all standard) goods

Get ready

Get an EORI number issued by the UK if you do not already have one (it starts with GB). It takes five to ten minutes to apply on GOV.UK.

Check if your goods need an import licence/certificate, for example if you are selling food or livestock and if so, apply for what you need.
For some controlled goods, there will be additional documents/certificates and processes that you will need to follow.

Check VAT guidance to understand your VAT responsibilities, and why to retain evidence of import.

You've decided to use Simplified Declaration procedure. Customs processes are complicated, so most businesses use customs intermediaries to complete customs processes for them.

Things to consider:

- Do you have the staff who could take on this new work?
- Do you have the skills to do this yourself?

Will you, as most businesses do, be using a customs intermediary to complete customs processes for you?

Yes, I want to use a customs intermediary.

No, I don't want to use a customs intermediary.

Find a customs intermediary. They will be required to be authorised for Simplified Declaration procedure before they submit supplementary declarations.

You must still apply and be authorised for a duty deferment account to pay any duties owed on goods by monthly direct debit, even if your goods do not attract customs or excise duty. New rules are being introduced which will allow most traders to use duty deferment without using a customs comprehensive guarantee. Even if you choose to use a customs intermediary they may ask you to get your own Duty Deferment Account.

You will need to apply and be authorised for Simplified Declaration procedure to submit declarations yourself.

You will need to make declarations. To do this you will need specialist software and to get training.
You will also need to apply for a CHIEF badge(s) – which is needed to complete and submit your declarations.

Continue to page 7

Continue to page 7

Simplified Declaration procedure – some controlled (and all standard) goods

Prepare to move your goods

Make sure you provide all the information your intermediary needs to complete a simplified frontier declaration on CHIEF, including:

- your EORI number (it starts with GB)

Before your goods leave the EU, make sure you have all the necessary information and complete a simplified frontier declaration on CHIEF including:

- your EORI number (it starts with GB)

Ensure that the declarant (EU Exporter) of your goods has done everything that they need to do to make sure they successfully pass through EU customs, including:

- Have an EU EORI number from the relevant EU authority
- Got any relevant Export/specialist goods licences/certificates.
- Completed an Export declaration on their country's declaration system.

Move your goods

You must submit your supplementary declaration by the fourth working day of the following month. This calculates what import duties must be paid.

You or your intermediary's duty deferment account will be debited after you or your intermediary have submitted your supplementary declaration.

If you are VAT registered you should use postponed VAT accounting to account for your import VAT to be paid quarterly.

If you are not VAT registered you will pay your import VAT with your customs or excise duties.

Further guidance on paying duties is on GOV.UK.

If you are an Intrastat business make sure you or your intermediary continues to submit your Intrastat returns.

For Transit continue to page 8

Transit

Get ready

Get an EORI number issued by the UK if you do not already have one (it starts with GB). It takes five to ten minutes to apply on GOV.UK.

Check if your goods need an import licence/certificate, for example if you are selling food or livestock and if so, apply for what you need.

For most controlled goods, including chemicals, food, excise goods or animals, there will be additional documents/certificates and processes that you will need to follow.

Consider what customs processes you will need to use once your goods have been discharged from a Transit movement. This may include applying for specific authorisations.

Check VAT guidance to understand your VAT responsibilities and why to retain evidence of import.

You've decided to use Transit. Customs processes are complicated, so most businesses use customs intermediaries to complete customs processes for them.

Things to consider:

Do you have staff who could take on this new work?

Do you have the skills to do it yourself?

Will you, as most businesses do, be using a customs intermediary to complete customs processes for you?

Yes, I want to use a customs intermediary.

Find a customs intermediary.

Your intermediary may have authorised consignee status.

Continue to page 9

No, I don't want to use a customs intermediary.

Consider applying for authorised consignee status which means you will also need to apply for temporary storage authorisation and for access to New Computerised Transit System.

Continue to page 9

Transit

To end your transit movement, the goods must be imported or discharged into another customs procedure.

If you want to complete import declarations straightaway you will need specialist software and to get training. You will also need to apply for a CHIEF badge(s) – without which you will not be able to complete and submit your declarations.

If you plan to use Deferred Declarations procedures, you will need to get ready to make supplementary declarations up to six months later, by obtaining specialist software and get training. You will also need to apply for a CHIEF badge(s) – without which you will not be able to complete and submit your declarations.

Ensure that the declarant (EU exporter) of your goods has an EU EORI number from the relevant EU authority, got any relevant Export licences/certificates and access to systems to make declarations or has appointed an intermediary to do it for them.

Prepare to move your goods

The declarant (EU Exporter) will have submitted an export declaration on their countries declaration system and submitted a Transit declaration on the Transit IT system (NCTS) to start the Transit movement.

They will provide the haulier with their EU EORI number and a unique reference number from the Transit system to enable them to move the goods across the border and into the UK. They will also have secured the movement by putting a guarantee (CCG) in place.

You will need to ensure that your goods arrive via an Office of Transit, when they arrive in GB. The requirements for completing this process depend on the specific point of entry.

If you or your intermediary are an authorised consignee, your goods will need to go to an authorised location with temporary storage facilities to end your transit movement. The goods and Transit Accompanying Document must be presented to the authorised consignee.

If you or your intermediary are not using an authorised consignee, your goods will need to go to an Office of Destination to end your transit movement. The goods and Transit Accompanying Document must be presented to the Office of Destination.

Continue to page 10

Continue to page 10

Transit

In order for a transit movement to be ended, the goods must be imported or discharged into another customs procedure. From 1 January 2021 to 30 June 2021, in line with the staged approach to customs declarations, there are different options for submitting customs declarations for importing goods:

- For standard (non controlled) goods coming from the EU you can take advantage of Deferred Declarations so that you can defer the declaration to HMRC for up to six months from the point of import. You or your intermediary will need to provide your EORI number so that it can be presented at the office of destination.
- For most Controlled goods you can use Simplified Declaration procedure. Once you have completed the simplified declaration, you or your intermediary will need to provide the Movement Reference Number (MRN) from CHIEF so that it can be presented at the office of destination.
- Place the goods into another Customs procedure (if you want to delay or pay duty at a reduced rate). You or your intermediary will need to provide the MRN from CHIEF if you are not ending the movement on NCTS yourself.
- Complete a full import declaration Standard import for your goods to be released into free circulation (if you want to pay the duty straightaway). You or your intermediary will need to provide the MRN from CHIEF if you are not ending the movement on NCTS yourself.

If these processes are not completed by the time the goods arrive at either the authorised consignee or the Office of Destination, the goods must be placed into temporary storage.

If you are an Intrastat business make sure you or your intermediary continues to submit your Intrastat returns.